How to Use MedVantx Home Delivery

Registration Options:

- Call us with your registration information.
- Fill out the enclosed registration form.
- Register online at MedVantxRx.com.

Obtaining your prescription:

- MedVantx can contact your physician for you.
- You can obtain a prescription from your physician and send it to MedVantx by mail.
- Your physician can send a prescription to MedVantx by fax or through electronic prescribing.*
- Be sure to ask your physician to write the prescription for a 90-day supply with three refills and authorize a one year supply (when appropriate).

Payment is due at time of order:

- Credit Card
(you can elect to securely save your credit card information for future online or automated voice refills)
- Check (by mail)
- Money Order

*By law, prescription fax forms and e-prescriptions are valid only from a prescriber's office.

If You Need Medication Right Away

Request two prescriptions from your physician, one for an initial 30-day supply that your local pharmacy can fill immediately and one for a 90-day supply with three refills to fill through MedVantx.

About Generics

Generic medications will be used when available and appropriate. The Food and Drug Administration requires a generic medication to be as safe and effective as its brand counterpart. Generic medications are considerably less expensive than brand name drugs. If you prefer a brand name drug, please contact our customer service department.

Remember

- Allow up to ten days from the time you mail your prescription until you receive the medication in your mailbox.
- Faster shipping is available, for an additional cost, by contacting customer service.
- Contact customer service for additional forms, or visit our website at MedVantxRx.com to print as many as you need.

Additional Information

- Provide your phone number in case we need to contact you.
- Provide your e-mail address to receive shipment notifications and refill reminders.
- If you need a new prescription, we will contact your physician.
- We will contact you by phone if your order is delayed.
