

If you have an accident, will it hurt your bank account too?

Unum's accident insurance gives you something to fall back on.

Life can take a tumble.

With a full-time job and three active kids, Marsha has a lot of demands on her time — and her pocketbook. So if her kids break something other than a window, she doesn't want an injury to break her bank account as well.

Benefits that pay for covered accidents while you are on the road to recovery

Unum's coverage provides a lump sum benefit based on the type of injury (or covered incident) you sustain or the type of treatment you need.

Examples of covered injuries include:

- broken bones
- burns
- torn ligaments
- cuts repaired by stitches
- coma due to a covered injury
- eye injuries
- ruptured discs
- concussion

Some covered expenses include:

- emergency room treatment
- outpatient surgery facility
- doctor office visit
- hospitalization
- occupational therapy
- speech therapy
- chiropractic visit
- physical therapy

See the schedule of benefits for a full list of covered injuries and expenses.

Who's at risk?

- Every 10 minutes, over 700 Americans suffer an injury severe enough to seek medical help.¹
- About two-thirds of disabling injuries suffered by American workers are not work-related, and therefore not covered by workers' compensation.²

How to apply

To learn more, watch for information from your employer.

Get the coverage you need.

Choose the coverage that's right for you. Your accident insurance plan can provide benefits for covered accidents that occur on and off the job. Accident insurance is offered to all eligible employees who are actively at work. You decide if it's right for you and your family.

The following benefit is automatically included in your plan:

Catastrophic Benefit

This pays an additional sum if a covered individual has a serious injury — such as loss of sight, hearing or a limb.

Four reasons to buy this coverage at work:

1. No health questions to answer. If you apply, you automatically receive this base plan.
2. This plan is portable. You may take the coverage with you if you leave the company or retire without having to answer new health questions. Unum will bill you directly.
3. Coverage becomes effective on the first day of the month in which payroll deductions begin.
4. Premiums are conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
