Accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefit: Equal to Group term life insurance benefit amount

Benefits after age 65:

You will still have benefits after you turn 65, though they will reduce as follows:

35% reduction at age 65; 50% reduction at age 70

All benefits end at retirement.

Living Benefit (accelerated death benefit):

You can ask for a portion of your group term life benefits to be paid while you are living, if you are terminally ill with less than 12 months to live. If you take a Living Benefit payment, the amount your beneficiary gets after your death will be reduced by the amount you were paid.

Waiver of premium:

We may continue your life insurance coverage until your Social Security Normal Retirement Age (SSNRA) you become totally disabled and unable to work prior to age 60. Premiums may be waived after you complete the six-month waiver of premium elimination period.

Conversion:

If you leave your job for any reason, you may be able to change your group life coverage to an individual policy. You must apply for coverage and pay the first month's premium for the individual policy within 31 days of the last day you were employed.
